

B. A. English

Vision

To inculcate aesthetic sense, creativity and human values through excellence in the studies of English language and literature.

Mission

- Fostering finer literary sensibility.
- Advancing mastery in linguistic capabilities for successful employment
- Promoting sound analytical thinking to cultivate organizational and leadership capacity in youngsters.
- Encouraging original and creative thinking to augment writer ship.

Programme Outcomes

1. To show ability in English communication, and explication of literary pieces. (Knowledge)
2. To demonstrate knowledge of the cultural diversity of India as an important outcome of English literary studies in India. (Knowledge)
3. To evaluate literary texts as expressions of the wider system of global cultures. (Knowledge)
4. To relate novel and contemporary perceptions of critical thinking to diverse spheres of knowledge and activity. (skill)
5. To demonstrate near-accuracy in pronouncing, accentuating and intoning English words and sentences as per the prescriptions of the Received Pronunciation (RP) pattern. (Skill)
6. To employ analytical reasoning to achieve sound decision-making as a chief managerial skill. (Skill)
7. To articulate reformative reflections on life and people intrepidly as writers. (Attitude)
8. To build vision and value-oriented peer team ship. (Attitude)
9. To endorse moral and ethical consciousness through the study of Literature. (Ethics)

Programme Specific Outcomes

1. Interpreting ethically literary language and literary artefacts as true of various forms of literature such as poetry, drama, prose, novel and short story applying diverse literary and cultural perspectives of the past and the present times.
2. Speaking and writing rationally, adopting inimitable style, a variety of formats, such as essays, critical reviews, and reflective presentations.
3. Pursuing scientific study of language as a human phenomenon in its historical, psychological, and social contexts.
4. Promoting consciousness about the need to address social, cultural, moral and environmental perils.

M. A. English

Vision

To inculcate aesthetic sense, creativity and human values through excellence in the studies of English Language and Literature.

Mission

- Fostering finer literary sensibility.
- Advancing mastery in linguistic capabilities for successful employment
- Promoting sound analytical thinking to cultivate organizational and leadership capacity in youngsters.
- Encouraging original and creative thinking to augment writership.

Programme Outcomes

1. Interpret the complexity of language as a communication system and as a literary vehicle.
2. Exhibit expertise in interpreting cultural and literary ideologies through the study of English literature.
3. Posit new and relevant methodologies and models to be competent Teachers of English, Translators and Comparatists (Linguistic Experts).
4. Demonstrate expertise in journalese writing and visual communication endorsing strong ethics of Journalism.
5. Proficient in the skills of acting and production of plays exhibiting an inclination to address social concerns.
6. Pursue research of significance in an interdisciplinary or a creative project demonstrating an intellectual independence that typifies true scholarship.
7. Write and publish creative works, and critical reflections on various subjects.
8. Interact productively as a potential teamer and an efficient leader in diverse fields of activity.
9. Subscribe to moral and ethical consciousness through the study of language and literature.

Programme Specific Outcomes

1. Cognize the evolution and the structure of the Modern English in the global context of the use of English today, and the old and the new linguistic principles and practices related to the Applied Linguistics fields such as Translation, Comparative Study, and English Language Teaching.
2. Read ideologically and generically literary works of art written and translated in English, old and new.
3. Evaluate the exclusive literary merits of works of art and synthesize research findings in a properly formatted and well substantiated research report.
4. Gather a sound perception of moral and ethical sensibility through the appraisal of literature.