AMERICAN TRANSFER PROGRAM

A SEAMLESS PATHWAY TO A CLASSIC AMERICAN EDUCATION

Concordia College New York & Bishop Heber College - Tiruchirappalli

BEST OF BOTH WORLDS NEW YORK CITY

To enter the American Transfer Program (ATP), students must first be accepted to Bishop Heber College under their normal admission process and meet the established criteria. ATP provides several options for accepted students who are interested in obtaining an American degree

Study 2 Years in India + 3 semesters at Concordia earning a Concordia Bachelors degree.

Study 2 Years in India + 1 Year at Concordia to earn a Concordia Bachelors degree.

Study 2 Years in India + 2 Years at Concordia earning a Concordia Bachelors and a Masters degree.

If accepted by Concordia, students will be issued an I-20 to apply for their US student visa. Concordia's office located at Chennai, Tamilnadu will assist the students in completing all the necessary paperwork as well as applying for their US visas. At present, there is a 100% visa approval rating.

ATP minimizes the cost of an American education by allowing students to study in India first. It also minimizes the risks for students enrolled in this program. If for some unforeseen reason a student is unable to transfer to Concordia, that student will be allowed to continue their studies at Bishop Heber College and earn their degree locally.
