PROSPECTUS

Bishop Heber College is a Religious Minority Educational institution established by the Tiruchirappalli - Thanjavur Diocese of the Church of South India. Its main objective is to cater to the Higher Educational needs of the members of the Church of South India and other Christians and specially to provide them an educational atmosphere in keeping with the Christian ideals of the Church. The College, however, admits students of all faiths and religions and seeks to provide them the best possible higher education.

Bishop Heber College traces its origin back to a school founded by the German Missionary, Christian Frederick Schwartz, in 1762. It was later established as a College in 1873. Honours Programmes were introduced in 1925. It was closed in 1934 and merged with the Madras Christian College, Tambaram. It was revived in June 1966 in response to the popular and persistent demand for its revival and to meet the growing educational needs of this region. The College is affiliated to Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli. The revived College celebrates its Golden Jubilee during the academic year 2016-2017.

AUTONOMY

The University Grants Commission, New Delhi, and Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli, granted the Autonomous status to the College during 2004 - 2005.
