Historical Background & Milestones

The Department of History is one of the oldest departments established under the able guidance of Dr. M. Sargurudoss, the first Principal and Professor of History in 1968 in Bishop Heber College. Since the inception, the emphasis on History was priority. Prof. S. Manickam, the famous historian, was one of the faculty members of the Department at the initial stage. The Department of History offers undergraduate, postgraduate and research programmes.
